SIG appoints Fabio Grazioli as Chief Supply Chain Officer

SIG today announces the appointment of Fabio Grazioli to the Group Executive Board as Chief Supply Chain Officer (“CSO”) effective 15 November 2024. Fabio joins from Haier Group, the global market leader in home appliances and consumer electronics, where he most recently served as Vice President Supply Chain, Procurement, E2E Cost Leadership and CTO - EMEA.

Fabio comes with more than 20 years of supply chain management experience in different industries and regions. He started his career at SC Johnson, a manufacturer of consumer chemicals, before he moved to global elevator company Otis where he soon became Head of Procurement and Supply Chain for South and East Europe. Since 2012, Fabio has been working in the home appliances industry, holding senior management positions at Whirlpool, BSH Home Appliances (Bosch), and Haier, latest as Vice President Supply Chain, Procurement, E2E Cost Leadership and Chief Transformation Officer – EMEA.

Fabio holds a degree in Management and Production Engineering from Politecnico di Milano, Italy. He is an Italian citizen and will be based at SIG’s headquarters in Switzerland.

Samuel Sigrist, CEO at SIG: “I am delighted to welcome Fabio to SIG. He comes with an impressive track record in designing, leading, and optimizing customer-centric supply chain organizations and has a passionate, hands-on leadership style. We are looking forward to working with him as we continue to deliver packaging solutions for better, every time.”
